On-site Wastewater Training
For Tribal Environmental Programs

“The Need for Training”
Tribal Institute

Bruce Chandler, Program Manager
Chickasaw Nation Office of Environmental Health
Stroud, Oklahoma
October 21, 2009

Brought to you by EPA Region 6 with Cherokee Nation, Chickasaw Nation, Choctaw Nation, Eastern Pottawatomie Tribe, and OSU Cooperative Extension
The Professional Installer

A professional installer is an individual who has demonstrated and is recognized for the knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to construct an onsite wastewater treatment system.*

* Consortium of Institutes for Decentralized Wastewater Treatment
Professional Installer

Professional

• The definition of any profession includes specific criteria established by and consistently promoted through the appropriate industry sector to...

• Improve Public Perception

• Inspire Public Confidence

*Consortium of Institutes for Decentralized Wastewater Treatment

Tribal Onsite Wastewater Training
OSU-EPA

3
Criteria for Title of Professional

• A Defined Body of Knowledge
• Standards for Retention
• Standards of Practice
• Criteria for Expulsion
On-site Wastewater Training
For Tribal Environmental Programs

Acknowledgements

Planning Team – LaDonna McCowan-Ferrier, Mike Kizer, Jason Warren, Dewayne Laxton, Roxanne Weldon, Billy Hix, Jamie Blankenship, Bruce Chandler, Mike Smolen

Educational Materials provided by CIDWT (Consortium of Institutes for Decentralized Wastewater Treatment)

Support provided by EPA Region 6 and OSU Cooperative Extension